

Anjelica was born into an entrepreneurial family; her parents owned and operated a local sporting goods store in Hudson County. As a student athlete Anjelica's favorite sports were basketball, and softball. Anjelica is an enthusiastic team player, and now brings her spirited energy into the Arena of Commercial Real Estate Services.

Prior to joining Zoltek CRES Anjelica worked as a Research Assistant at the Meadowlands Consumer Center, and as an Independent Senior Services Specialist. Anjelica's ability to organize, prioritize and implement structured tasks to achieve team goals is an incredible skill set that she brings to Zoltek Commercial Real Estate Services. Anjelica carries the values of hard work, integrity, and outstanding client services into everything she does.

Anjelica's background in research, retail, and medical services combined with her focus and drive are an incredible asset to the Zoltek Team.
