

Daniel brings a unique skill set with his background Commercial Construction & Property Management, and as a Construction Superintendent at HRCG based out of New York City. Daniel started his career as a real estate agent in residential sales, but soon realized his skills were being underutilized. He is thrilled to have made the switch to Commercial Real Estate; and can't wait to be a valuable addition to "The Team" at Zoltek Commercial Real Estate Services. Daniel's experience across the industry provides a unique insight into real estate opportunities.

Daniel is a hands-on agent with an "old school" work ethic. Computers are great for researching but it takes an agent that will go out personally to inspect properties and search the market Daniel is that agent that will put in the work. He has a strong drive to succeed and pinpoint and negotiate the best real estate deals for his clients The goal is always the same; to match property to a business/tenant in a manner that meets the highest and best use. Helping his clients make the most of their investments.
